The picture below is the GymSports New Zealand Training Leotard. This is used for all female codes when training overseas. Training leotards allow for a uniform and professional look for our athletes. Plain black leggings or shorts can be worn with it when training. The attire which is allowed to be worn with the leotard while training will be specific to the needs of each tour and gym sport.

The leotard is from GK Elite.

The cost of the leotard is approximately $55 - $65 NZD. This is dependant on the time of ordering and the exchange rate.
